

The Paper Plane

This Modern Classic is a must for lazy warm nights in the summer. Don't let the Bourbon fool you, it's a refreshing and delicious sipper. The addition of Amaro Nonino gives the drink a nice herbal palate while still remaining balanced.

ingredients	$\frac{3}{4}$ oz Bourbon	A popular story claims this cocktail was named after the M.I.A. song of the same name. The recipe's creator, Sam Ross, hasn't verified the tale directly, but a time-sensitive google search bears it out.
	$\frac{3}{4}$ oz Aperol
	$\frac{3}{4}$ oz Amaro Nonino
	$\frac{3}{4}$ oz Lemon Juice

Very easy to make and tasty as well, I'll be shaking up a few this summer and singing the lyrics to the song (badly) while the pups howl at me.

Salud, and remember, it's a circus out there, drink accordingly. – Mo